Tax Collections 95% of Levy

County Affairs Discussed At Annual Ratepayers Meeting Last Saturday

The annual County meeting held in the high school auditorium Saturday afternoon, Feb. 19, was very well attended, with over 350 ratepayers present to discuss the 1954 financial statement and hear reports of the various committees.

Total revenue for the year was $1,009,937.08 and total expenditures $1,088,759.60, giving a surplus for the year of $12,777.48. Major items of expenditure were $484,311 for education, $304,021 for public works, $50,751 for general government and administration, $65,138 for health and hospitals, $61,088 for debenture debt charges, $85,347 for capital expenditures provided out of revenue, and $23,521 discounts on current taxes.

Major items of revenue were $643,192 from tax levies, $336,592 in grants and subsidies and $70,363 requisitions from towns and villages.

Despite curtailed wheat marketing and the severe hail storms that hit the area last year, tax collections amounted to 95 per cent of the current levy, which is considered to be very good and is about the same percentage as in 1953.

In his report to the ratepayers, County Chairman J. E. Carlson extended the hope that it would be possible to effect some reduction in school taxes in 1955. A new general assessment has been completed, and all lands have now been assessed on the same basis to give equalized values. The total land assessment in the County is now approximately $14 million, an increase of about 15 per cent.

Assessor J. J. Miller was present at the meeting and explained the manner in which land is valued for assessment purposes. The basic value for the type of soil is affected by many factors, such as depth of topsoil, type of topsoil, topographical features, waste lands, etc. A uniform method of assessing is used and those farmers who feel that an error has been made in valuing their land may appeal to the court of revision, giving definite information as to why the assessed value is incorrect or unfair.

Resolutions

A resolution was introduced to the effect that the school auditoriums throughout the County be made available to non-profit organizations for meeting that would benefit the ratepayers as a whole. School Chairman J. M. McKay explained that the auditoriums were now being used for school activities, Home & School meetings and County meetings and that applications for their use for other meetings or purposes were carefully considered by the School Committee before being granted or refused. It was not the intention of the Committee, Mr. McKay said, to allow the auditoriums to be used for functions that would normally be held in the community halls of the various centres or to compete with the community halls in any way. The resolution was defeated.

A resolution to the effect that the complete minutes of the meetings of the County, School and Municipal committees be published in the Advocate each month was introduced and discussed. It was explained that all matters arising out of the minutes that were of interest to the ratepayers as a whole were now published as news at no cost to the County, but that publishing of the complete minutes much of which was routine and of little or no news value, would have to be done on a paid-space basis, inasmuch as the minutes of each meeting would take several columns of space. The resolution was defeated.

A resolution was passed extending the appreciation of the ratepayers to the County Chairman and the members of the County Council for their work during the past year.

D. H. Russell of Carmangay was chairman of the meeting and D. D. McQueen acted as secretary. Mr. Russell drew attention to the fact that Mr. McQueen had served in Vulcan as municipal and county secretary for the past 30 years and that his knowledge and experience in municipal affairs was a great asset to the County. A vote of appreciation to Mr. McQueen was endorsed by the meeting.

SCHOOLS REPORT

J. M. McKay

The Lomond, Mossleigh and Herrington school centres had been added to the County in the past year, said J. M. McKay, chairman.

C. E. Fulton President

New Officers Elected At Board of Trade Meeting

Charles E. Fulton was elected president of the Vulcan District Board of Trade at the annual luncheon-meeting held in the IOOF hall Monday. He succeeds Stanley Scales.

First vice-president of the Trade Board for the ensuing year is R. H. Anderson and Max Jesse was elected second vice-president. Directors are Stan Scales, Ray Flitton, Boyd McKay, Ross Walker, Brown McDonald and Lawrence Richardson.

In his annual report, past president Stan Scales stated that the Board had approached the government regarding a dial telephone system for this district and was informed that Vulcan was now fifth on the list for such installation.

On the matter of Highway 23, the Department of Highways had indicated that 1955 plans called for hard-surfacing from Barons to Champion, with the highway to be widened from Champion north through Vulcan and made ready for hard-surfacing in 1956.

The Board has urged that a resident veterinarian be secured for this district and there was reason to believe that one would move here this year. Licence plates advertising Vulcan as the "Wheat Capital" had been distributed in the spring of 1954, and later in the year, a banquet had been held honoring those residents who, in their various fields of endeavour, had brought honor to the town and district.

Speaks on TV

A. M. (Bert) Cairns, station manager of CFAC, Calgary, and secretary-treasurer of the Calgary television station CHCT-TV, was the guest speaker at the luncheon and spoke on "Sightseeing at Home - The Modern Miracle of TV".

The first television picture was transmitted at London, England, in 1926, said Mr. Cairns. Development was just getting well under way in the 1930's when it was stopped by World War II, but proceeded rapidly immediately after the end of the war. The Canadian government hesitated to allow private enterprise to develop TV in Canada, and finally, in 1952, the CBC was given the job. By this time Canada was eight years behind the States in developing television. Then it was found that it was not financially possible for the CBC to build TV transmitters and stations, so they were allotted the major centres and private enterprise was allowed to proceed with TV development in the smaller cities. The policy of only allowing one station to be built in each city has deprived the public of freedom of choice and Mr. Cairns forecasts a change in this government policy.

In Calgary, the three radio stations joined forces and formed a television company, as only one licence could be secured. The investment so far, for the transmitter and a small amount of other equipment is over $350,000. A studio has yet to be built and equipped with TV cameras and other equipment. The major source of TV material now is from films. A cross-country network is still to come and will probably consist of a micro-wave relay system. Live-televasting of on-the-spot events and other features requires equipment not now available in Calgary but it is hoped to have this equipment and proper facilities by early summer of this year.

Better programming is in prospect, Mr. Cairns assured his audience, and the next few years will see a great advancement. The Calgary station will increase its power in April to four times greater than at present.

Teachers' Salaries Set for 1955-56

The salary negotiating committee of the County of Vulcan Local of the Alberta Teachers Association has reached an agreement with the County School Committee regarding the teachers' salaries for the school year 1955-56.

The basic minimum salary has been raised $100 for those who have had two years or more University training and the allowable total for accumulative sick leave has been extended to 80 days.

Over 120 At Home & School Regular Meeting

At the regular meeting of the Vulcan Home and School Association held in the High School Auditorium on the evening of February 15, over 120 attended. Items dealt with in the short business session included: the voting of $10.00 to the local public library, sending the required quota to the Home and School Building fund, Edmonton and the setting of the date for "Talent Night" as April 23. This is adult talent, with anyone over the age of 17 in the County of Vulcan allowed to participate.

Following the business part of the meeting, Miss Hazel Cameron's room of grade 4 pupils entertained the group with two-part singing. The grade 12 students assisted by H. Ulmer, presented a musical comedy and the Misses Coleen Haverty and Irene Earl, two of the candidates in the United Nations Pilgrimage contest, gave their speeches.

To commemorate Founder's Day the local past presidents of the association were honored in the form of a "20 question" quiz program conducted by Einar Kumlin. Miss Hazel Cameron's room won the attendance prize.

Honoring Alberta's Golden Jubilee, the Home and School Association is sponsoring a tree planting day, in which the high school students will assist.

Mrs. S. Manning presided at the meeting. At the close of the evening refreshments were served by Mrs. Lawrence Richardson and her committee.

Live-televasting of on-the-spot events and other features requires equipment not now available in Calgary but it is hoped to have this equipment and proper facilities by early summer of this year.

Better programming is in prospect, Mr. Cairns assured his audience, and the next few years will see a great advancement. The Calgary station will increase its power in April to four times greater than at present.

Defeat Shaughnessy in Final

Legionaires Win Six-team Hockey Tournament At Local Arena

Playing before a packed house, the Vulcan Legionaires skated to a 4-3 victory over the strong Shaughnessy Cadillacs in the final game of a two-day hockey tournament at the local arena Saturday and Sunday.

Trailing 2 to 1 into the final period, the local pucksters showed no signs of having played two games in a row as they blasted two goals into the Shaughnessy nets to take the game and top prize money. Boutland and Gorbous each got two goals and two assists in this game, while Pat Walker picked up three assists.

The final game was almost a replica of the semi-final earlier in the afternoon when Vulcan defeated Champion by a 5-4 score in overtime. In this game Legionaires were trailing 4-2 in the final period before turning on a drive that knotted the count. Max Kehr broke up the game at 4:28 of the sudden death overtime by getting an unassisted goal. In this game, Kehr with two, Buehler with two and Gorbous with one packed Vulcan's scoring punch. Champion scores were: M. Jordan with two, K. Jordan with one and V. Jordan with one, Pasolli getting two assists.

Saturday's Results

The first game saw Champion defeat Milo in overtime by an 8-7 count. M. Jordan starred for Champion netting three goals including the winner.

The second game featured some of the best hockey seen in the local arena in years as Shaughnessy Cadillacs edged Carlsland by a narrow 5-4 count. Shaughnessy then drew a bye for Sunday's first game.

The final game Saturday night was won by the Legionaires as they dumped the Enchant entry by a 4-1 margin.

Ted Howlett and Wally Franks officiated the games and Ross Best acted as timekeeper. A vote of thanks was extended to the Vulcan

County Reports

of the School Committee, in his report to the ratepayers. The Lomond school was over-crowded and some action would have to be taken in providing additional accommodation at this point.

While school teachers were still hard to get, some easing was noticeable in 1954 in securing public school teachers.

Teachers in the County school system were developing pride in the school setup within the County. A sense of loyalty to the County was becoming evident, in that this year the teachers' salary negotiating committee had only asked for comparatively minor changes in the salary schedule, informing the committee that the teachers in view of the economic situation due to wheat marketing difficulties, wished to co-operate to this extent. The salary schedule for the next term has now been approved by the School Committee and by the teachers, with only slight changes being made in the current schedule.

The County of Vulcan is providing a "practically door-to-door" van service, said Mr. McKay, and there is none better in the province. The cost could be lessened by adhering to the School Act, which only requires that a van come within 1 1/2 miles of a child's door, but as long as the ratepayers want the better service they will have it.

The school book rental scheme is proving very successful and, although the original cost was substantial, the scheme is entirely self-liquidating. Rental of books for a student costs the parents one-third of the purchase price and this provides a considerable saving.

At the present time, said Mr. McKay, and as shown by the financial statement, about 25% of the revenue for schools comes from provincial grants and about 75% is provided by local taxation. Larger school grants have been promised this year and may ease the ratepayers' school tax problem to some extent.

MORE REPORTS NEXT WEEK
Due to space limitations in this week's edition, the Advocate is forced to hold the annual reports of the Municipal Committee and the Chairman of the County Council until next week. Also held over is the annual report of the Vulcan Public Library.

Champion Lions' Ninth Annual Charter Night

Champion Lions held their ninth annual charter night in the Community Hall on Monday, February 14th, with a very good attendance, including visiting Lions from the Carmangay and Vulcan Clubs. District Governor Stewart Adams of Calgary and Mrs. Adams were also in attendance.

The evening's festivities began with the banquet served in the dining room. Fred Cartwright offered the invocation. Toastmaster was J. G. Steeves. A "Sing-Song" was enjoyed before the banquet. Mr. Adams, the District Governor, was the guest speaker and following the banquet, Wally McIntyre of the Carmangay Club inducted three new members.

A program followed this ceremony, consisting of skits and impersonations.

Dancing was led off by the Grand March. Music was supplied by Frank Little and his orchestra. The Catholic Women's League were the caterers for the banquet.

Amity Club

The February meeting of the Amity Club was held at the home of Mrs. Henry Leback with fifteen members and two visitors present.

Thanks was given to the past president, Mrs. Bessie Siler for her services to the Club.

Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the ratepayers of the Village of Champion was held in the Community Hall on February 15th with fifteen attending. The minutes of the last meeting were read, and business arising from this meeting was discussed. The ratepayers are very anxious to have natural gas service, and a letter had been written enquiring as to the chances for this. It had been found out that if a gas line came within a reasonable distance of Champion, the company would be very pleased to have the franchise in the Village. The proposed sewerage disposal system was discussed, and the ratepayers were informed that after the by-law had been approved by the Board of Public Utility Commissioners it would be brought to a vote.

The Municipal Inspector's report was read. This report was a very favorable one.

It's as simple as this. In Winter, snow usually falls. Snow usually gets hard and slippery. If you drive too fast over something that's hard and slippery, you're apt to skid and bust something . . . yourself, usually. Then for goodness sake why not drive slow? And use tire chains?

Flu with accompanying sore throats has also been making the rounds.

The Lutheran Ladies Aid met for the January meeting at the home of Mrs. George Heather. Despite the heavy roads and cold there was a good turnout of members and visitors to answer the roll call. Several articles were turned in for the fall bazaar. Pastor Foster read a portion of the gospel of Luke and also gave a short discourse afterwards. Later in the afternoon Pastor Foster showed some slides he had taken in different parts of the province in the course of his work. These were much enjoyed. Mrs. Jack Deitz, Mrs. Bob Deitz, and Mrs. Bartsch assisted the hostesses with a lovely lunch.

Among the visitors for the afternoon were Mrs. Carl Ost, of Lomond and Mrs. George Hanks of Riblake, Wisconsin, USA.

The place of the next meeting will be announced later.

Mrs. Henry and Mrs. Ted Klemme accompanied by Mrs. Gilbert Voors went to Vulcan to attend the FUA workshop.

Mr. and Mrs. Bartsch attended the cattle growers convention and banquet in Calgary last week.

Lewis Greaves was taken to Bassano hospital on Sunday having suffered a setback from the measles.

H. S. Burns, Field Supervisor

It is a well accepted fact among stockmen that organizing does not pay. In a study conducted by the pasture Division at the Experimental Station at Swift Current, they found that as the highly palatable grasses were reduced they gave way to other grasses of an unpalatable nature and weeds. Three heavily grazed fields showed a reduction of 28, 39 and 55% with the average potential grass yield being reduced from 887 to 514 pounds to the acre. If native grass pastures are to remain productive the palatable grasses must be allowed to produce seed, this seems to require that about half of the annual production must remain uneaten. When planting a forage mixture it is well to include two or three pounds of Creeping Red Fescue to the acre, this is recommended by Mr. R. L. Pharis, Supervisor of Crop Improvement and he also recommends that it be included in pasture mixtures in all but the driest areas. It provides a very luscious bottom growth. Planted with alfalfa it makes a good hay and as a pasture there is less danger of bloating than with straight alfalfa. Some variations in yield could be expected from year to variations in rainfall but that is year in the Vulcan area due to to be expected with any crop.

MAJORVILLE

The February meeting of the FWUA was held at the home of Mrs. M. Clemmons with 18 members and two visitors present. The roll call was answered by showing a novelty item that could be used as a small gift or for a bazaar. This proved to be interesting and a number of novelties were both novel and useful.

Among the correspondence read was a letter from Mrs. Olive Douglass introducing herself as the new vice-pres.; also a letter on handicraft sent last year some members craft for the annual convention. As there was no handicraft sent last year some members thought an effort should be made this year to get a start for this year, but one member is of the opinion that essential as hobbies, handicrafts and cultural activities are to farm women there are more important problems facing the woman on the farm than to find out who can sew a neater seam, hook a nicer rug or crochet a finer dolly. After some discussion Mrs. Gilbert Voys was appointed handicraft convener for this year.

Mrs. Bob Scott gave a lesson on how to make shell pictures and also one on leather-craft. ### He's helping to build houses by the thousand!

This trick is not as difficult as you may think. In fact, you have probably done it yourself.

Actually, this man is simply mailing a payment on his life insurance policy. And the houses he's helping to build are the result of investments made for him out of that money by his life insurance company.

In the same way, every life insurance policyholder renders many other valuable services to his fellow-citizens. For investments may also be made for him in ways that help finance new roads, schools, waterworks and other important projects.

So, if you own life insurance, remember—while you're building security for your family and yourself, you're also helping to make Canada a better land to live in!

P.S. from your life insurance man

"Invested life insurance dollars earn interest that makes it possible for you and your family to enjoy the benefits of life insurance at such low cost. If you have any questions about how to make life insurance fit your own special needs, give me a call. I'll be glad to help you!"

Promoting Better Agriculture IN ALBERTA

Although great progress is being made in other fields, Alberta's economy is still largely dependent upon agriculture. Buoyant farm income means greater prosperity for all, and when it is reduced, the effect is soon felt by everyone. It is important therefore that Alberta's farming industry be given every possible assistance and encouragement.

This is the purpose of the Alberta Department of Agriculture.

The work of the department embraces all phases of farm life. The 4-H Club movement is actively encouraged among farm boys and girls. Schools of Agriculture offer practical training for young farm people. Highly trained personnel are ready to help farmers and their wives in solving their problems and improving their methods. And finally, Alberta's Master Farm Family program and the Agricultural Hall of Fame honor those making outstanding contributions to agriculture and their communities.

In addition to supervisors and technicians at headquarters, the department maintains a staff of 47 district agriculturists and 16 district home economics working out of 42 centres throughout the Province. These men and women bring the latest scientific knowledge of farming and farm management and of home-making directly into the home. Every year they hold thousands of public meetings and office interviews, and stand ready at all times to advise and assist farm men and women in every possible way.

In addition to this, district agriculturists direct the 4-H Club program in their districts. This young people's program is increasing in interest and importance all over Alberta. By participating in various 4-H Club projects, the farm boy and girl learn by doing. The purpose of the program is to encourage and assist farm young people not only to appreciate better farming and home-making methods, but to become better citizens and active leaders in their communities.

The department maintains schools of Agriculture at Olds, Vermilion and Fairview. Here again the purpose is to encourage young people to make farming their vocation, and those who complete the courses return to their homes with a practical knowledge of how to make the best of their opportunities in agriculture.

Minimum entrance age to one of the three schools is sixteen years and applicants should have a least Grade VIII standing. Regular courses in both agriculture and home economics extend through two terms lasting from October to early April.

The three schools can accommodate about 500 students. All young people taking the courses benefit from the experience and training gained, and many of those who have graduated now occupy important positions in public service and municipal government.

Established in 1949, Alberta's Master Farm Family program has a two-fold objective: to give official recognition to families who have made an outstanding success of farming, family relationships and community living, and also to inspire others to follow the example of those who have earned the award. (There is no doubt that the Master Farm Family program has given impetus to "Good Farming—Right Living—Clear Thinking" in this Province.)

The highest honor which the Department of Agriculture can bestow upon a farmer is to name him to the Agricultural Hall of Fame. So far five Albertans have gained this great distinction. The achievements of those so honored will be remembered for all time.
